

A Doubter's Guide to JESUS

An introduction to the man from Nazareth for believers and sceptics.

Rev. Dr. John Dickson is an Australian historian, preacher, academic and public advocate for the Christian faith. For three Sundays will be speaking at my church from the end of August to continue 'A Doubter's Guide to Jesus'. John will present portraits of Jesus found in both the biblical and historical record.

29 August

Jesus the Judge
the promise of justice for all

5 September

Jesus the God
front row seats to the divine

12 September

Jesus the Servant
the heart of the universe

"Dickson draws on extrabiblical historical sources alongside the New Testament to show that the unique (and at times) uncomfortable claims Christians make about Jesus have historical basis, and that even the most skeptical won't be able to dismiss Jesus without sacrificing historical integrity."

~ Sam Allberry

Even though we're in lockdown, church services are still going ahead online, and in some ways that makes it easier to 'come' and hear John speak, to consider Jesus and hopefully have some of your questions about him answered.

There are five service times each Sunday.
8:30am, 9:30am, 10:30am, 4pm and 6pm
All livestreamed via YouTube.
